We hope our friends in old Cumberland will send a good delegation to the legislatnre. The old war horse, Gen. Jno. C. Blocker, will, we hope, be one.

Old Bladen to be redeemed. Our friends say that Bladen will go republican by 300 majority. Singletary and Newell are both good campaigners.

Col. Pinkney Rollins, of Asheville, writes us that Mr. Cocke "will carry that district by 3,000 majority. People of both parties are going to vote for him."

Moore county should see that the farmer patriot, Capt. W. M. Black, is elected to the Senate of North Carolina. There is no truer or better man in the state.

The Pender county Republicans, we understand, have come together, as they should, and will elect the ticket as nominated by the regular convention held at Burgaw. The Republican ticket is a good one, and should be successful.

WE UNDERSTAND THAT I. J. GRADY, THE REGISTER IN CAPE FEAR TOWNSHIP IS REFUSING TO REGISTER REPUBLICANS; IF THIS IS SO HE WILL BE PROSECUTED, AND PUNISHED TO THE FULL EXTENT OF THE LAW.

HONOR OR DISGRACE.

To the Editor of the Post:

I notice that the Hon. James Wilson, ex-Mayor of our city, and John P. Sampson, Esq., are both running as candidates for the Senate. If they both continue as candidates till the day of election, a Democrat will be elected as Senator from New Hanover and Pender. Will either Mr. Wilson or Mr. Sampson be able to look a brother Republican in the face without wincing if they are the means of causing this thing? Let one or the other of them take themselves out of the way and save both their own self respect and their honor. A VETERAN REPUBLICAN.

July 26th, 1878.

Mr. McQuigg, did you vote for Grant or Greeley in 1872?

Garrell wants Republican votes, and therefore, he says that he is a Republican.

Let the man who bolts the Republican party this time, be marked as Judas.

Advices from Sampson are such as to lead us to believe that the Independents will be elected.

If McQuigg is a true-blue Republican he should stop fighting the Grant Republican party.

"Let no guilty man escape," said Grant. Let no bolter succeed, say all true Republicans.

Friend Garrell, what are you, a Republican or Democrat? Stick to your party which ever it is.

We understand that the Republican ticket of Brunswick county, is sure of success on Thursday next.

Garrell will not deny telling the editor of this paper that he (Garrell) voted the full democratic ticket in 1876.

Mr. John F. Garrell wants the Democratic votes. Why don't he stand square by his own Democratic party?

True Republicans always will stand, like a stone wall, by the Republican party, and the nominees of said party.

E. H. McQuigg was opposed to Grant and organized clubs against him in 1872, and he is still fighting the Grant party.

Friend Garrell declares in Republican meetings that he is a Republican, and apoligizes for it when he meets with Democrats.

True to God and true to party, is our motto. A man who would sell his party to Garrell and McQuigg would sell his birthright.

Does Garrell and McQuigg expect Republican votes when they have been trying for the last six years of defeat the Republican party!

He who would sell his party, would betray his God. Recollect Judas Iscariot, Republicans, before you vote for Garrell and McQuigg.

The President of the Democratic Greeley Clubs in 1872, Mr. E. H. McQuigg, is the bolters candidate for Clerk of the Superior Court.

Judas sold Christ for thirty pieces of silver. Bogus Republicans, those who pretend to be with you, are attempting to sell you to Garrell for money.

If McQuigg wants Taylor, the Democrat, elected, he should come out like a man and say so, and not try and split the Republican party so that Taylor can be elected.

Mr. Garrell says he has been a Republican for five years. Not, Mr. Garrell, you stated to the editor of this paper that you voted the full Democratic ticket in 1876. We are glad we have no more such Republicans as you are.

Garrell, one of the officers of a Tilden and Vance club in 1876, is a candidate for sheriff in 1878, against Gen. Manning who fought for Hayes in 1876. Does Garrell expect Republicans to vote for him under any such circumstances.

If Mr. E. H. McQuigg has really returned to the Republican party, why don't he stand by the party nominations? In 1872 he fought the nominees of the Republican party, Grant and Wilson, for the Democratic nominees, Greeley and Brown. Now he is fighting the Republican nominees for himself.

Elijah Hewlett is the proper man to vote for, for Treasurer of New Hanover county.

LOOKOUT FOR CHEATING AT THE POLLS.

Of course we all know that the Democrats have the entire control of the polls at every single precinct. The late infamous legislature passed an act providing that the magistrates should be elected by the legislature, and that the said magistrates should elect the County Commissioners. These County Commissioners thus created by the Raleigh Bourbon oligarchy select the poll holders. So it is a clean chance at fraud. They can and doubtless will count just as they please, regardless of the number of votes cast. Watch them and see that justice is done. And if there is cheating our columns will be open for reports of any rascalities which may occur, and we will publish names in all cases, and give the details

We ask our friends to send us full reports of all frauds at the polls, and we will put them in our black-list.

A TRICK! A FRAUD!

It is known to some of our readers that the last legislature took a slice from the western side of the county of Brunswick and put it on the county of Columbus. The effect of the act is to leave the territory thus transferred in the 13th Senatorial District, (Bladen and Brunswick) just as it was before. We learn that the authorities of Columbus have provided for no registration or poll holders for this transferred territory, with the purpose of not having the vote of it cast for Senator. The name of the township is Ransom since its transfer to Columbas.

This is a specimen of the Democratic rascality which we may expect in the coming election. We demand that the County Commissioners of Columbus provide for the taking of the vote of this territory as they are required to by law.

The address of Colonel Thomas B. Keogh, Chairman of the Republican Committee of the State we publish in this issue, which we hope every true Republican and Union man will read. We ought to have received it for publication last week, as it appeared in the "North State" on Saturday last, but the Colonel neglected to send it to us, and his paper did not come to hand in time. We do not like to publish stale matter, but we do so this time in the interest of party.

SAMPSON CLUNTY.—Robert Ward is an independent candidate for the Senate in Sampson county, and the chances are that he will be elected by a very handsome majority.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—General Jos. C. Abbott, Judge Daniel L. Russell and W. P. Canaday have consented to address the people at the New Market House on Wednesday night next. Let everybody turn out and hear them.

WM. M. COCKE, JR.—This gentlemen is an Independent candidate for Superior Court Judge. We advise all Republicans, and all other good men, who desire and impartial judge to vote for him. He is a gentleman and a lawyer, and one who will do honor to his state and the bench.

Onslow county should be redeemed, and if the Republicans will stand together and do their duty, she can be. Thos. E. Guilman is a young, energetic politician, who has all of the requisites to make a successful leader, and we should like to see the good people of Onslow elect him to the legislature. They can do it if they will act all together harmoniously.

HARNETT COUNTY.—Where is our young and esteemed friend, Oscar Spears, of Harnett county? We hope he is again in the field, with his war paint on—if he is, we can bet on his election. Mr. Spears is a gentleman of character and a lawyer of ability, and we hope to see him in the next General Assembly of North Carolina.

Let every true Republican, true patriot, true citizen, every person who is true to the Union; all those who appreciate the freedom which the Republican party give them (and are to day ready to fight for) stand true to the Republican party, and vote for its honor and welfare by voting for the nominees of said party, thereby supporting it in its honor and glory.

If swearing was not against our religion, we should certainly have done a remarkable quantiy of it on Sunday morning last. In the editorial concerning the statement of the Raleigh Register to the effect that the State Executive Committee had disbanded the Republican party, we wrote "disbanded" twice in said article, but the devilish printer made us say "disfranchised." We will have to import a fellow from Washington, who has been practicing swearing up hill at a mark, to do our printer justice.

CITY ITEMS.

Morse is rather soft for clam bakes.

We like French clams for bakes.

Flanner has captured a lot of Oldham.

New-man does not understand clam bakes.

The most popular dish now, is Rice and clams.

To make a "clam bake" a success you must have "Cobbs" along.

Houses for sale cheap by W. P. Canaday either before or after the election.

You must not Dart too quick at a clam bake, or you will fall over a Brink.

Stacey VanAmringe is the regular nominee for Clerk of the Superior Court. See that his name is on your ticket.

They had Rice with their "clam bake" at the sound on Wednesday last, which was a new feature introduced by the Custom House ring.

The good white and colored people of Duplin county, have endorsed a ticket which will probably be elected. See the proceedings of the convention in another column.

THE PRINCE OF GOOD CITIZENS.—Col. John A. Maultsby, of Whiteville, is an independent candidate for sheriff of Columbus county, with a good prospect of election, owing to the supposed defalcation of the present incumbent.

The Quarantine Physician, Dr. W. G. Curtis, applied to the Collector of the port, on Wednesday last, for permission to have a vessel discharged of her ballast, at Smithville, before allowing her to come up to the city. Permission was granted by the Collector.

Madame Pompadour's Garter. A thrilling and historical romance of the reign of Louis XV. By Gabrielle De St. Andre. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa. One volume, paper cover—price 50 cents. For sale by P. Heinsberger.

We called on Senator Darby a few days ago, and found him well, but he was of the opinion that the old adage was true, "Save me from my friends." They say Frank walks in his sleep and talks of the senatorship. He expects to be made Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Several of the "clam bake" party was on the Brink of being corned on Wednesday last, for we saw the Cobbs Dart behind the man. The clams were very French(ey) but very Good(win), and the crowd had a Penny-packer is the only way to account for the number gotten on the out side of, but the company were made up of New-man.

SENATOR W. H. MOORE.—This gentleman, although out of politics, having retired to his farm in Federal Point township, seeing the great danger his party is placed in by the bolters has therefore, come out from his retirement and taken the stump for the regular ticket, headed by Gen. S. H. Manning. We expect to see the scalps of several of the disorganizers hanging to his belt before Thursday next. The Senator evidently intends to make things hot for bolters and disorganizers. Look out for the wounded when he brings his dangerous weapon to bear upon them for they will certainly fall.

DISORGANIZERS AND BOLTERS.—A man who will deliberately put himself up as an independent candidate against the wishes his party, as expressed in convention, is a bolter. A person who would bolt the nomination as made by his party convention is a disorganizer. A disorganizer is a person who does not care for himself, his God, or his party; he is an enemy of everybody and everything that is good, and a friend to no one except himself. He is a man meaner than anything that has yet been seen on top of the ground, and not excelled by his Satanic Majesty. Let every man stand by his party, and victory will be ours on Thursday.

We hope our friends will read the card of Mr. E. R. Dudley of Newbern North Carolina. Mr. Dudley is one of the the leading colored man North Carolina, and what he says about bolters is in the true interest of his race:

NEW BERNE, N. C., July 23, 1878.

DEAR EDITOR:—In your issue of the 21st, instant, you state that there are bolting republican candidates in Craven county; that is a mistake. Old Craven has never, heretofore, countenanced bolters, and does not propose to commence now. All Republicans are united for our county ticket, and trust New Hanover will not disgrace her record by electing Democrats, bolters or Tilden Republicans.

Yours in the faith,

Don't fail to vote for Scott for the legislature.

O, for a drink of Welkin's cool and refreshing lager.

Everybody should vote for W. H. Waddell for the legislature.

See that everybody who wants a good sheriff votes for Manning.

The weather is 101, while politics are 151, and still on the increase.

Lookout for Jos. E. Sampson, and vote for him for Register of Deeds.

Senator Merrimon will please accept our thanks for public documents.

Edward D. Hewlett is the regular nominee for Coroner. Vote for him.

We will be on the Brink of visiting Washington if the weather continues hot.

THE CAMPAIGN.—Don't fail to purchase a house and lot of W. P. Canaday before the campaign is over.

Our latest from Washington informs us that the investigating committee headed by Potter and Butler, have gone to a fashionable watering place to carry on their fraud business.

We Believe that Dr. W. G. Curtis is fully capable and truly anxious to do his whole duty as Quarantine Physician of this port, and our citizens may rest easy about the yellow fever here. There is not a particle of danger, as long as the Doctor does his duty.

MR. EDITOR:—

I understand that a certain bolting candidate for the office of High Sheriff of New Hanover county is always very punctual in keeping his appointments at the different election precincts.—Query—Wonder if the watch he goes by is the one he borrowed from an orphan girl, of this city, and neglected to return? AN ORPHAN GIRL.

CITY BRIEFS.—The Spanish barque Cabieces after all has been sentenced to the marine railway of Messrs. Ross & Cassidey.——Dr. Curtis, the Quarantine officer for this port writes a letter vindicating his management of quarantine matters.——Mr. Græme (pronounced Gray-em) who used to be in the Insurance business here, has been in town fixing up lag-ends.——The city is being carefully disinfected by the authorities, under the superintendance of Capt. Brock, Chief of Police.——The thermometer in Raleigh and Wilmington stands about the same, but Wilmington has a good sea breeze, and is pleasanter.——The Rev. Dr. Wilson has just preached the Commencement Sermon at the University of Alabama, and it was pronounced a very able one.——Col. Duncan K. McRae, an old time very eloquent orator of our state, now living elsewhere, is about to visit our city.——The Charlotte Greys came informally, in undress or citizens' dress, as each pleased, and floated about having a good time without pomp.——A tramp was found dead in an old well near Burgaw.——Swift Galloway is working hard for his election.

SPEECH OF HON. W. P. CANADAY, TO THE REPUBLICANS OF WILMINGTON, ON THE 26TH INSTANT.

Mr. President and Fellow Citizens:

On the eve of an election in which the interests of all our citizens may be determined by the intelligence of the voters of this county and state on Thursday next, I am asked to address you on the questions at issue before you to day.

Political parties are formed only for the purpose of directing the strength of a comined concert of action to elect individuals to office who are representatives of the policy, views, and principles which are deemed necessary to the good government of the community, state and nation.

I am impressed with the importance of an intelligent vote by the rebulicans in this election, by reason of the independent candidiates who represent temselves to be republicans, but who, in fact, are still-born and are only the refuse of a democratic minority who hope to buy your vote by representing themselves as republicans for the occasion, and democrats the moment that they are elected. But, gentlemen, I have that faith in the republican electors that convinces me that no republican can reasonably be asked to throw away his votes which he practically does if he deems it advisable to cast an irregular ticket on the day of election.

The action of the democratic legislature at their last session determines their policy toward the poorer classes of our citizens, and if it meet your approval, that the poor shall be taxed to support the rich, I do not know of a better way to express your assent to such measures as they have enacted than to vote for the straight democratic ticket and leave the irregular factions to slumber in the silence of the dead.

If you can consistently vote to tax yourselves ten dollars for the purpose of transacting any kind of business, vote the democratic ticket. If you wish to sell a load of wood, fish, melons, or any of the products of your plantation or the living products of your rivers and bays, and pay a tax disproportionate to the taxes on real property, vote the democratic ticket! If you desire to make the majority subservient to the minority, that democratic ticket will have attractions for you; and you ought to vote it, pure and simple, and not excuse your vote when given for an irregular nomination under the guise of republicanism, when, as intelligent republicans, you know, or ought to know that a divided vote is the success of the opposing party.

If you desire to pay $5 poll tax in this city instead, of $2 which the republican legislature required you to do and have your wages garnisheed if yu do not do it, vote the democratic ticket. If you wish to pay a license tax for selling a load of wood or any other merchandise, vote the democratic ticket. If you wish to elect another legislature which will impoverish the poor man and let the rich go free, that ticket is the one for you; if the poor man's income is be taxed and the land owner is to value his property at a nominal sum, vote the democratic ticket; if democratic officials are to be permitted to appropriate the public funds, and go free under our courts while the least misdemeanor of any republican puts him in jeoperady of the penitentiary for ten years, vote the democratic ticket; if you wish to disfranchise yourself by the enacting of laws which require another man's affidavit to permit you to vote when you are a republican, vote that old ticket, which, like necessity, knows no law, and is an heir loom of the democracy of this state.

Possibly, you may think, that one vote can do no good; that is not so! The present President of the United States was elected by only a majority of one, and Marcus Morton was elected Governor of Massachusetts by one majority. Oliver Dockery was defeated as your candidate for Congress by only a few votes in a great district, by a faction who broke from the party, defeating his election, and New Hanover county by a split in the ranks of the republicans, which, I regret to see here to-night, within your memory, seat to the legislature McClammey and Ashe, by whose votes as democrats, you were deprived of an election of a United States Senator, Gen. Abbott lacking only one vote of a majority of a quorum in general convention which disqualified him in the opinion of the Senate of the United States, and the legislature elected for the same year impeached Gov. Holden, by democratic votes, simply because he was a republican, and for no other reason, than that he was a republican.

I have now to give you my views as to your vote in the present campaign. We have the democratic party represented by Roger Moore or Owen Fennell for sheriff and whole blocks of other candidates which will appear in the interests of the democracy on the morning of the election. Do not disabuse your minds and infer that no democratic candidates are to appear on the day of the election other than those I mention. The democratic bird has a foot as broad and flat footed as a duck and from the view I am able to take from the crowd I see before me that democratic duck will be anchored in this county years after this election. That you may not misunderstand me in my remarks, I desire to state emphatically, that I believe it to be to the interest of republicans to support the regular ticket, all others are without effect so far as your vote as republicans are concerned; if irregular tickets are presented to you on the day of election, I see no reason why you should vote such tickets unless you wish to give a vote, which in my view, does not represent your sentiments and which will be of no effect.

The democratic party, by what they are pleased to call their superior intelligence, hope to profit by your dissentions on the day of election. If you wish to aid the democracy vote a straight democratic ticket, and if not, vote the straight republican ticket.

There can be no compromise in this matter, one vote for republicanism or democracy is all that you can cast and I would advise you as you value your interests in the future to vote no bastard ticket, but say at once whether you are republicans or Democrats on the day of election.

Republicans you have your nominees before you. For the regular republican ticket you have as your candidates for Sheriff, Stephen H. Manning; for Clerk of the Surperior Court, Stacey VanAmringe; for Register of Deeds, Joseph E. Sampson; for Treasuer, Elijah Hewlett; for Coroner, E. D. Hewlett; for Surveyor, John Kent Brown; for the House of Representatives, Henry E. Scott and William H. Waddell and with this ticket I earnestly ask you to go to the polls on the day of the election and see that it is elected.

Some of you may have preferences for other candidates, but I charge, you, though they may not be all personally acceptable to you, to consult not only the interest of yourself, but of other republicans, and see that your vote is cast as a solidity in the interests of the republican party, and not divide your vote in the interests of the democracy, with whom in political matters you have no fellowship.

A word more, and I close my remarks. The democrats on the day of election will ask you to erase the names of some of our candidates and insert the name of some other person. Don't do it; stand by the nominations of the party and you will have the satisfaction of having cast your vote to some effect and be aiding your interests as republicans and not be a partisan of the democracy. As party men, having a common purpose to subserve, the breach is wide between republicans and democrats, and I charge you to see to it that you are not compromised by voting any part of a democratic ticket unless you are democrats. "An ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure," is an old adage in the currency of events, and it is doubly so in your relations to the democratic party.

I desire to refer to what is termed among the democracy the quieting of republicans who are burdened with the cares of office. I do not understand that such order from the President prevents any republican from stating his views in political matters as a private citizen, unless he intrigues for the control of the nominating conventions of the party, and with that understanding, gentlemen, I am content if you are.

One word more, and I will retire! Vote the straight republican ticket and subserve your own interests.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

W. P. CANADAY,
Editor and Proprietor.

WILMINGTON, N. C.,
SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 28, 1878.

WHIPPING IN.

In every Democratic county in the state, the party lash is cracking at the independents and bolters. From the Raleigh Observer and the News down to the smallest county sheet the old party lash whistles in the air. Most of these papers, however, are very much frightened and are billing and cooing most pitiously, as well as in turn threatening vengeance on all independents and bolters. And the greenbacker gorgon has showed its head to their great consternation. Verily! there are a good many Beltshazzars among the Bourbons who have seen the hand writing on the wall, and are staggering back, aghast! They read the fearful words "thou hast been weighed in the balance and found wanting" from all corners of the state.

Any one who has noticed the long trains of carts carrying piles of filth from gutters and sewers, each driver moodily walking beside his cart conscious of the dirtiness of his business, has seen the Potter committee. There are some decent men on that committee of course, but the name of the committee itself will go down to history, if it is remembered at all, as a despicable little episode in affairs. We have no use for one of those green-eyed cusses who can never see anything but the bad side of things, and we have no use for a politician who is never happy unless he can thrust his nose into some mass of undiluted stench, nor have we any use for a party which can only grow fat on scandal. The Democratic party has turned itself into a great national scandal-monger. The Potter committee is the slimiest and meanest of the whole set.

BOURBON MANNERS.

It was urged by leading Bourbons that if the Republicans would make no nominations this year, there would be an era of peace, a general subsidence of Bourbon slang and blackguardism, and as much decency as could be expected from a set of beasts like them. They are worse and meaner than ever. The Republicans are doing nothing, keeping still, letting the whole thing go by default, yet those cur-dogs take every occasion to bark at them. Hear the Piedmont Press. It puts a lot of questions, and we will answer them. First it asks:

"How did we get control of the legislature?" Answer. By kukluxing, and fraud. Men who pretended to be human beings dressed themselves in night-gowns and masks, and went by twenties and hundreds to negro cabins like cowards, and whipped or mutilated one man. This was the way the Democracy carried the legislature of 1870.

Second. "How did we elect a Democratic Governor?" Answer, By counting fraudulently 20,000 more democratic votes than were cast.

Third. "How have we elected every member of Congress from this state save one?" Answer. By gerrymandering the state contrary to the constitution and the laws, and by making one Republican district with 10,000, Republican majority, when if it had been done fairly the Republicans would have had flour or five members.

Fourth. "How is it that the election of our ticket for Supreme Court Judges is considered certain at the election to be held in [August?" Answer. Because the Republicans know that the Democratic poll holders would count out our ticket if we elected it.

Fifth. "How is it that our banner floats in triumph over every southern state?" Answer. By fraud, rifle-clubs, bulldozing, kukluxing and more than 3000 murders.

Sixth. "How is it that overwhelming Republican majorities in Congress have been overcome and our party placed in the ascendency?" Answer. Same way as above. By lying and cheating.

Seventh. "How was it that we could elect a Democratic President in 1876 by a popular majority of nearly a half million?" Answer. You didn't elect him, and you know it.

Eighth. Why is it that our Legislatures do not now meet to make laws by which they can steal our treasure and outrage our people?" Answer. This is the silliest question of all. If this editor knows anything at all he knows that no money was voted by any Republican legislature which did not go into the hands of native citizens, all but two of whom were Democrats. If anybody stole the money they did.—Three of these persons are dead. If he thinks it will contribute to his health to tell any one of the living that he stole it he had better do so.—Moreover the Confederate legislature squandered all the sinking funds and all the educational funds of the state, and voted a state debt of more than $15,000,000. Which was the worst, Bourbon rule?

Ninth. Why is it that no bands of armed men are sent out to terrorize over our people? Why is it that we now have no drum-head court martials, before which our people are to be brought when arrested, without warrant, tried without judge or jury and condemned to be shot like dogs?" Answer. The reason why no "bands of armed men," with night gowns on, and no kuklux "drum-head courtmartials are out, hanging Outlaw, murdering Stevens, and mutilating Justice, is that too many of them got in the Albany penitentiary, and too many more were on the way to it.

There are several other questions, but they are so flat that we can't spend any time in answering them. To be frank we have taken all this trouble on account of sympathy with the suppositious individual named in the following paragraph, viz:

If there is one good and true democrat, honest hearted that has a patriotic devotion to his party and to the best interest of his country that has ever for a moment had a serious doubt on his mind as to the propriety, yes absolute importance of party organization, we beg him to answer for himself the questions above.

Whoever this suppositious person may be, we tender him our profound sympathy on account of the bad grammar in which he is first presented to the public. For to tell the truth, we do not believe the general public have any knowledge of any such "honest hearted" "democrat."

THE STATESVILLE AMERICAN DRAWS FIRE.

About three weeks ago the Statesville American contained an article entitled "What Does it Mean?" which struck us at the time as very significant. It struck out boldly into deep water, and formulated ideas which lie in the minds of the people loosely, into distinct and clear propositions. The following was the American's bold language:

In 1868, and for several years after that time, the party in this State opposed to the Republican party, styled itself the Democratic-Conservative party, then for a time, Conservative-Democratic party. In fact, in some localities, Democrat was left off entirely, or spoken of in a whisper, or printed in small type, so distasteful was the word "democrat," which brought afresh to view the troubles of the recent past. This party at that time, could not have budged a peg under the old name of "democrat," alone. Conservative was tacked on to catch the unsuspecting old Whig, and in many instances it was successful. But how stands it now? The word "conservative" is left off entirely. And although, this is so, some old Whigs who are co-operating with this party, fancy to themselves, and say they belong to the new Democracy, and repudiate the idea that they are of the same old Democracy as that of 1860, which did so much to destroy the country and its best interests.

It then proceeded to quote from the Raleigh News, Gov. Vance's special organ, the following:

"A party which came through from 1860 to 1868, having in the meantime regained its lost control of the State; standing to-day where it stood eighteen years ago, is not likely to quit business and go into liquidation on account of the laudable ambition of two gentlemen to sit in Senate of the United States."

The American then commented upon what the News had said in the following explicit and striking language:

As we have said at the heading of this article, "What does this mean?" Does Vance and Merrimon and their old Whig followers, stand where Clingman and Scales and their old Democratic followers stood in 1860? We know that Vance and Merrimon were on one side then, and Clingman and Scales on the other, and a great gulf between them. We know they are together now. But as to which crossed the gulf, has heretofore been a matter of dispute by some, as we have seen. These old Whigs contending that Clingman and Scales crossed over to them, leaving all behind but their name; while the old Democrats contend that Vance, Merrimon, and their old Whig followers crossed over to them, leaving all behind—honor, principles, and all, and not only took their name, but their principles also. And it must be admitted that any fair interpretation of the above language quoted from the News, will sustain Clingman and the old Democrats in their assertion of the matter. And we cannot doubt what the News says about it, as it is Gov. Vance's official organ, published almost under his immediate eye, and no doubt approved by him. Now we wish to ask old Whigs, What does it mean? Do you stand where you stood in 1860, or do you stand where Democracy stood in 1860? The question is not a hard one to answer, and we will pause for a reply.

These reasonings of the American merely putting in form opinions which are known to be common among the old Whigs of this State, not only aroused the fears but inflamed the temper of some newspapers in that vicinity, and one, called by a strange misnomer the Landmark, printed as is the American in the beautiful village of Statesville, makes this proclamation:—

"Yes, Vance and Merrimon, Clingman and Scales, are together now. Yes, the Democratic party is the same in 1868 as it was in 1860. Men may change, but the sublime doctrines and principles of Democracy are unchangeable, firm as the rock of Gibraltar and will endure forever. * * * Vance and Merrimon and their followers crossed over the chasm and they are together now. * There is no such thing as a new Democratic party. * * They had the right to secede. This is as clear as the noon-day sun."

To which the American, coming boldly the front again, makes a conclusive reply:

"So after making the above quotations from the Landmark, we venture again to ask our old whig friends, "what does it mean?" You see that the Landmark contends that the Democracy of to day is the same it was in 1860; you see it contends that men may change, of course meaning old whigs, but that the principles of this democracy have never changed, and never can change. You see it contends that old whigs have abandoned their principles, and gone over to the democracy, and that as its principles have not, and cannot change, you have the same principles it had in 1860. You see that it claims the right to secede was one of the doctrines of the democracy in 1860, and of course as its principles have not and cannot change, that is one of the doctrines to day; so it is for you to say how this is—whether true, or not—that you have abandoned all your old notions and principles and gone over to democracy, bag and baggage, as the Landmark contends you have!

But we know that the Democracy of 1860, did not only believe in the right or doctrine of secession, but it believed in actually doing so. Now, if what the Landmark says, is so, that it has not and never can change, and is the same to day that it was in 1860—it is now in favor of trying it again. According to the Landmark, a state has a right to secede, and if it is not in favor of exercising this right, it must be because we have a better government now, than we had in 1860.

We have been careful to give a correct version of this controversy, because we know there are a great many old Whigs in this region, now acting with the Democrats, who have never been satisfied with the transition by which the original conservative party of North Carolina was submerged into the Democratic party, not leaving a single vestige of either name or principle of the old Whig party. The present Democratic party of the south is committed without reserve to the doctrines of secession. They make no secret of it but constantly assert and re-assert it. But the old Whigs did not hold these opinions in 1860, nor even in 1868. Hence the tenderness of the original party nomenclature, calling it a "conservative" party. Gov. Vance was known over the whole country in 1860 as a Union man, being a member of Congress at the time. So was Senator Merrimon in his sphere. So were Mr. Graham, Mr. Badger, Mr. Leach, General Dockery and a hundred other old leading men whom we might name. Those of them who are now living and actirg with the Democrats are obliged to assent to the doctrines which caused the rebellion. Thus it has come about that to all outside appearance and for all political purposes the white population of the south is nearly a unit on the subject of the right of secession. We have never believed that it was really so, for there are constant evidences of a silent protest. But there is not one public man in the whole south, not acting with the Republican party who would dare to take bold and open ground inside his party against secession.

Some people may say that we are not in fashion in discussing these old questions. Some people are getting to think that the doctrines of secession are dead issues. We deny it. The old doctrine of secession dominates and tyrannizes in the Democratic party of the south with an inflexibility as unwavering as at any previous period. While we are at all times in favor of abandoning obsolete subjects as party questions, we do not believe in dropping this subject until it hides its hideous visage. And we shall be glad if the old whigs of our state who have been chafing for these last sixteen years will at last break from the toils into which they have been enticed and be men again.

THE CANVASS IN BLADEN.

Our Bladen friends seem to be getting on well. They have a very excellent ticket all round. The canvass has now been going on for more than a week, commencing on the north side of the river, and coming round by way of French's Creek, The Hollow, Bladenboro, Abbottsburg, Clarkton, Clark's Mills and Carver's Creek, to end with a grand meeting at Elizabethtown on Saturday.

The candidates are nearly all present at each of these meetings, and when not present are represented by some one who speaks for them. We look confidently for the success of the whole Republican ticket in Bladen.

Mr. Garrell says he has been a Republican for five years. Infact, he claims to have kept it up for that length of time. Now Mr. Garrell we wish to ask you a few questions, and square answers are demanded.

Did you vote for Grant in 1872?

Mr. Garrell, did you vote for Caldwell in 1872?

Mr. Garrell, did you vote for McKay and Purnell in 1874?

Mr. Garrell, did you vote for Hayes in 1876?

Mr. Garrell, did you vote for Settle in 1876?

Mr. Garrell, did you vote for Canaday in 1876?

Now if you did, we consent that you have been a Republican. If you did not, then you have'nt been, and if you were not a Republican you were certainly a Democrat, and being a Democrat you have no right to ask or expect Republican votes.

But Mr. Garrell told the editor of this paper not three months ago that he voted the Democrat ticket in 1876. Will the people take notice.

The news from all parts of the state is good; the people have risen up in their might and are determined to shake off the shackles of the "corrupt" democratic leaders.

General Grant as a Candidate.

A reporter of the New York Herald has surrounded and captured then Hon. Hamilton Fish at Long Branch recently and held him in captivity long enough to punish him with an interview which drags its slow length through some three columns of that sheet. The ex-Secretary is at present represented as a horny handed son of toil—a veritable granger—with sunburnt vissage and all the evidences now that he "is out of politics," that he "earns his bread by the sweat of his brow." The interview covers several interesting subjects, among which are General Grant as a possible candidate for a third term in 1880, the removal of Messrs. Arthur and Cornell, civil service reform, President Hayes, the diplomatic service, the surrender of Tweed, &c., all of which compose a very interesting boquet of political flowers, but from which we propose to cull only that portion relating to General Grant as a candidate for re-election.

We have from the first regarded the dragging of the name of General Grant into the arena thus early as a weak invention of the enemy. It is another chapter of the ridiculous play put upon the political stage in 1874 and 1875 by the enemies of General Grant, and which the Republican party was silly enough to take stock in, with the results for good or ill that are now being reaped by the country. It worked so well then that the enemies of General Grant have ventured upon its re-enactment at this time, in the hope that history may repeat itself. But to the interview:

I asked Mr. Fish, who was quietly smoking a cigar, while he watched the beautiful moonlight glimmering on the superb expanse of ocean in front of the Beach House, what he thought of the attempt to set up General Grant's possible renomination for a third term as a great bogy.

"I feel certain," Mr. Fish replied, "that General Grant does not desire a renomination and that neither he nor any of his friends have done anything to start this discussion. I do not believe any of his friends had anything to do with bringing forward this idea, although the country desire to see him him re-elected President."

"You really believe that Gen. Grant, in his own heart, does not desire another term of office, Mr. Fish?"

"I do, most sincerely. Gen. Grant" (this was said in a rather enthusiastic tone for so reserved a man as Mr. Fish) "is the most simple, unassuming, the most unselfish man I have known all my life. I know—nobody could know it better, for to no one did he speak on the subject more unreservedly and intimately—that when Grant's second nomination was broached he did not desire it. He wanted to go back to St. Louis, on his farm. He was as indifferent to it as that." (Mr. Fish snapped his finger.)

"If Grant does not desire a third term why did he not decline it at the end of his second—why could he never be brought to say that he would not be a third-term candidate?"

"Because the agitation was started before the nomination had been offered to General Grant. The newspapers and the men who started the movement wanted to drive Grant into declaring that he would never accept what had never been offered to him, and General Grant is not a man to be driven into anything. He would not be driven—that was all. He did not desire his third nomination, as he had not wished his second."

"What do you think, then, of the fear which has been expressed that Grant will make himself a king and set up an American monarchy if elected for a third term?"

Mr. Fish laughed heartily. "Grant a king!" he exclaimed—"a monarchy in this country? Pshaw! It is not worth talking about. Grant, the simplest, the plainest man for a really strong man—and no one can deny that he is a strong man—I have ever known in all my life! I am in constant correspondence with General Grant, and only a few weeks ago I received a letter from him in which he tells me how much more he is enjoying the latter part of his trip, in which he has not been delayed so much with answering speeches in non-English speaking countries. I know, from all his letters, that he has never taken these attentions in any other light than as a compliment to his country. He knows that they are meant not so much for himself as for the country he represents." After a pause, and in answer to a remark of your correspondent, Mr. Fish said, "Grant is no fool, and he who takes him for one makes a sad mistake!"

"Do you think that the third-term principle is a dangerous one?"

"Well, all I can say about that," Mr. Fish very quietly replied, "is that if the the people want a man for a third-term they will have him—that's all. There is no prohibition in the Constiuution which prevents it. It is often said that all our great Presidents were satisfied with two terms; but look at it. Our first five Presidents all left their second terms ot office as old men. They were all about sixty-seven or sixty-eight years old, or thereabouts, when they went out of office. At that age a man's ambition is satisfied. Moreover, they all had been actors in our Revolutionary war, and had been so long before the country that they might well have thought the country had enough of them by that time. Take Monroe, for instance; he was a captain in the Revolutionary war, I think, and when he left office he had been before the country nearly fifty years, a period of time sufficient to satisfy any ambition. No President was ever elected at so young an age as General Grant."

"Do you think, then, that if our first five Presidents had been much younger men they would have been elected for a third term?"

"Possibly some of them might—with the exception of General Washington, who, I believe, would not have accepted it. He never showed any signs of ambition."

"Do you think it probable that Gen. Grant will be the Republican candidate, although he may not desire it?"

"I don't—for the reason that no man has ever been nominated President whose nomination has been talked of three years before." Mr. Fish then, with great wealth of historical illustration, pointed at the various contests for the Presidential nomination, in which invariably some new, almost unheard-of compromise candidate was finally taken, and particularly at the nomination of Polk, Taylor, and Pierce.

"But pardon me, Mr. Fish, was not Grant talked of three years before his first nomination?"

"No," was Mr. Fish's reply, "Grant was nominated in the fall of 1868, and that would take us back to the fall of 1865, while Grant did not turn up prominently as the probable candidate until Johnson's later quarrels with Congress, when Congress took all the power from him which it could take, and placed it in the hands of the General of the Army." Mr. Fish here gave an interesting account of the well-known enactments by which President Johnson's power was crippled, showing how vividly his memory retained all the events of that stirring time.

It is barely possible that the pending movement, which has its origin in the fear of the enemies of General Grant and Republicanism, that his candidacy is possible under the logic of events, may prove a boomerang to its engineers, and that General Grant may become a candidate in spite of himself or anything his enemies may do to prevent it, in which case he will sweep the country as Harrison did in 1840. The reasons for such a conclusion are numerous, prominent among which is the possibility that he is the only prominent man to day to which the popular mind can turn with confidence in an establishment of the laws of government, a guarantee of public peace, and the perpetuity of the Republic. The public mind is crowded with fear lest the late Confederates may come into full possession of the Goverament, a result which might insure its overthrow, either by a coup d'etat or a bloody revolution. Such consequences are much dreaded, and the apprehension that they may fall upon the couutry is the only reason why General Grant may may be a possible candidate against his own wishes. We have no doubt that Mr. Fish correctly reflected the wishes of General Grant in his view of the case as it now stands. He will not be urged as a candidate by any of his friends; and if he shall be made one, it will be by the strong will and voice of the people, which will prove irresistible and overwhelming. This the enemies of the country fear, and hence this early demonstration and discussion, in the hope that his nomination may be defeated by pressing his name to the front prematurely.—National Republican.

THE WILMINGTON POST,

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 28, 1878

Address of the State Republican Committee.

To the Republicans of North Carolina :

The State Republican Committee have decided not to call a convention for the nomination of a state judicial ticket to be voted for at the election in August next. This course was adopted after mature deliberation and consultation with many leading Republicans in the state.

The reports of harmony and zeal on the part of our friends, and dissension and demoralization among our enemies which come from all parts of the state, justify the belief that the Democrats have no confidence in their ability to again poll anything like the immense fraudulent vote by which they carried the state in 1876.

The success of the Democrats in North Carolina in the election of 1876, was the culmination of a series of frauds unparalleled in the political annals of the country. Having prepared the way by years of systematic terrorism, they seized the power of the state through the unblushing corruption of the returning officers of one county, and followed the tactics so successful in Robeson county, in the general election of 1876, when forty-four counties cast over 12,000 votes more than they contained adult male inhabitants, according to the census, and allowing for the natural increase. As a fitting corollary of this act of wholesale fraud, the Democratic party made haste to crystallize the lesson of their wickedly achieved success, into laws designed to permanently corrupt and debase the elective franchise.

In pursuance of this plan they took from the people the right to elect justices of the peace, and gave to a few creatures of the partizan majority in the legislature the power to abolish offices; institute new courts; elect the corporate and financial officers of each county; control the levying of taxes and the expenditure of public funds; regulate and control the registration of voters; and appoint the officer whose duty it is to receive and count the ballots and make return of the same for the same for all elections; thereby taking away the greatest safe guard of popular liberty, and putting it in the power of the dominant party easily and securely to perpetuate fraudulently acquired power.

The pretence of securing a more efficient magistracy is a sham, which is made still more transparent by the fact that the legislature greatly restricted the criminal jurisdiction of that class of officers, and is designed simply to veil the usurpation by which the people of the various counties were, and are, deprived of the right to elect their financial and administrative officers, and control the machinery of elections.

The insolence which appoints from fifty to one hundred party hacks as guardians of the collective citizenship of a county, is excelled only by the insulting excuse which is rendered for this act, to-wit; that the people cannot be trusted with the choice of their own magistrates, though they are quite competent to vote for Governors, Judges and other officers who do not control election returns.

Among the many deplorable results of Democratic control is the large increase of public expenses and the resultant heavy taxation which will be imposed upon our people. At no period in the history of North Carolina can be found such a reckless expenditure of the people's money as has been and is being made under the present state administration. One illustration is the proposed needless expenditure of thousands upon thousands of dollars to build a palace for the Governor. His Republican predecessors were content to live economically at the State Capital, without charging the public funds with even the expense of house rent.

The accession of the Democratic party to power in North Carolina, and consequent control of our affairs, has been accompanied with many great evils chief among which we enumerate :

1. The loss of local self-government and the right to elect county officers and manage county affairs ;
2. The loss of the Homestead ;
3. The largely increased expenditure of public monies ;
4. Burdensome taxation ; and
5. General depression in all kinds of business.

The Republicans of North Carolina reiterate their former declaration of principles, for the triumph of which we have bravely struggled. We point with pride to their recognition by our opponents, and count among our fairest achievments the picture of the present Democratic Governor of the state celebrating "Emancipation Day" with our colored citizens congratulating himself and them upon their liberty and equality of civil rights; organizing and equipping colored troops; officiating with excusable pride as their commanding er-in-chief; and returning with deferential scrupulousness as a reviewing officer, the salute of those whose right to be citizens he so lately denied, and whose support he more recently contemned.

This action of a democratic Executive and the appointment by the present democratic legislature of colored men in many counties to fill judicial positions, will, we hope, have the effect of obliterating the color line in politics in this state, and we trust will be followed by beneficial results.

In the nomination by the democrats of Smith, Dillard and Ashe as Judges of the Supreme Court, we witness a defeat of the ultra and proscriptive element of that party, and a triumph of the moderate and conciliatory wing. We desire to recognize and encourage the spirit thus manifested and to express our confidence in the gentlemen named for the Supreme Court as regards thir ability, impartiality and a courteous recognition of the rights of all classes of citizens.

We sincerely desire to protect the Supreme Tribunal of this state from such slanderous attacks of partisan fury and hate as have been heaped by the Democratic press upon the present able and upright court from the day of its organization.

The tyranny and injustice of some of our democratic judges, their partisan rulings and flagrant enmity towards the colored race demand our earnest and continued protest and resistance. The practice of imposing severe penalties for trivial offences, in the cases of colored men, and the imposition of less onerous penalties or entire remission of punishment in the cases of white democrats, tends to destroy respect for the courts, to encourage violence and to increase the proportion of flagrant offences. In view of these outrages upon justice we recommend an active and unremitting opposition to partisan democratic nominees, for Solicitors and Judges of the Superior Courts.

We recommend to republicans, the support of candidates for the legislature who will pledge themselves to active exertion to restore to the people the election of justices of the peace, of which they have been unjustly deprived; the choice of those whose duty it shall be to levy and apply the taxes of each county; to restore to every citizen the full power of his ballot now debased by a "gerrymander" of unheard of atrocity; to demand that the people of this state be protected, as are those of other states, by the legal regulation of freight and passenger tariffs on all railroads within our borders, and to make the receipt or offer of free passes or passage or other favor or valuable consideration by or from any corporation to state officers or members of the legislature, a criminal offense. It is to such measures of evidently needed reform and apparent justice, that we should address ourselves.

We believe that North Carolina is Republican by a good majority upon a fair ballot; and recommend the utmost vigilance in all matters connected with registration, the election, and preparation forwarding of returns thereof; especially in those counties where fraud prevailed to such an alarming extent in 1876. Examine the books of registration; see that the dead are placed beyond the hope of resurrection for political purposes; the living restricted to one vote each; and the boys compelled to await the constitutional period before exercising the right of suffrage.

Fraud cannot long be successful against vigilance and manly determination; nor can wrong for any great period triumph over right. The Republican party in North Carolina is as vigorous and as hopeful to day as it was in 1876; it cannot and will not die, so long as the democratic party seeks to subvert the rights of our people, to centralize the state government, and to control the domestic affairs of every county by a party caucus to be held at Raleigh.

OLD, TRIED, AND TRUE.

People are getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that great American Remedy, the

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment,

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 25 years, until now it encircles the habitable globe.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast.

To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable.

A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot-rot, hoof-ail, hollow horn, grub, screw-worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind-gall, ring-bone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Par-ticularly valuable to Miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure.

Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactoxy life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you,—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a sample bottle for ten cents. Three doses will relieve you.

We speak knowingly when we assert that Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is the best article of the kind sold on the American Continent, Personal trial has demonstrated this, and the article is an elegant and cleanly one, without which we think no toilet complete. Messrs. Johnston, Holloway & Co., 602 Arch street, Philadelphia, are the agents for the article, and when our Philadelphia friends return from Cape May, they should certainly procure some of it. We know of no such article extant for the hair, and thus speak in such decided and emphatic terms.—Ocean Foam, Cape May, N. J. 2t

The elementary mechanical powers are only five in number. Chemistry has already discovered nearly twenty times as many elements. Shall we permit fossils to frown down chemical discoveries, when we see such results as Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic, Liver Pills, and Elixir of Wild Cherry? For sale by all druggist. 2t

Liver is King,

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the western continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

NOTICE.

SCHEDULE B TAX.

ALL wholesale and retail merchants are hereby notified that a privilege tax was levied by the Legislature of 1876-'77, of Five Dollars, (the same levied by county,) in addition to the Schedule taxes proper. Wholesale dealers are also notified that in giving in their purchases the law now compels payment on all purchases, made within the State as well as out of the State, (including timber, lumber, turpentine, spirits turpentine, rosin and naval stores of any kind and cotton.) All hotels, boarding houses, restaurants and eating houses are requried by law to pay a tax of one-half per cent on the gross receipts. The tax will be due July 1, and payable within the first ten days thereafter, on all purchases since the 1st of January, 1878.

All parties interested in the payment of Schedule B Taxes will save cost by attending to the same at once, as the law will be strictly enforced. Owing to the very small amount collected on the above Schedule for the past several years, and the numerous criticisms upon the returns given in by parties in business, I am prompted to request that you be careful in making up a correct an positive returns, thereby relieving me of the unpleasant duty enjoined upon me of looking over your books and invoices. In this connection it is especially and particularly enjoined upon you that all purchases made by you from, through or by brokers must be included by you in your returns.
